Taking Action Against Climate Change: A Carbon Fee for Massachusetts

Tuesday, May 3, 2016, 7:30 pm
Westwood Public Library
660 High St., Westwood, MA 02090

Speakers

Marc Breslow, Acting Director of Climate Xchange
Cathy Buckley, Chair of Massachusetts Sierra Club

Massachusetts, already a national leader in energy efficiency, is poised to take a big step in accelerating the transition to clean energy as proposed legislation for carbon pricing gains support. Join us to learn...

- Why we need carbon pricing.
- What carbon pricing is and how it works.
- What it means for Massachusetts and how it will impact us.

Marc Breslow is an energy and climate policy expert and economist. He is Acting Director of Climate Xchange, an organization that is focused on passing carbon fee-and-rebate legislation in Massachusetts. In 2010, while working in state government, he had a leading role in developing the Clean Energy and Climate Plan for 2020. He has a Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst.

Cathy Buckley is Chair of the Massachusetts Sierra Club. She is active on several climate-related fronts, including fracked gas pipelines, the Trans Pacific Partnership, and carbon pricing. Before taking an early retirement to become a full time climate activist, Cathy worked on transportation issues for the Boston Metropolitan Planning Organization. Cathy holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from MIT.
